EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Frederick Gibb III on July 13, 2004.

Replace claim 8 with the following:

8. A method of reserving manufacturing capacity to satisfy a customer deliverable order for a product using a computerized system, said method comprising:

inputting said customer deliverable order to a relational database tool within said computerized system;

automatically obtaining a block of part numbers from unallocated part numbers in a product manager tool that is operatively connected to said relational database tool, so as to allocate manufacturing capacity for said customer deliverable order;

automatically preparing a bill-of-materials in said relational database tool to satisfy said customer deliverable order using part numbers from said block of part numbers; and beginning manufacturing of sub-components corresponding to said bill-of-materials before design of said product is completed.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-4, 6-11, 13-18, and 20 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

While Van Huben in view of Beasley shows a method of reserving manufacturing capacity using a database system similar to the current invention, neither this reference taken alone or in combination with the prior art of record disclose automatically obtaining a block of part numbers from unallocated part numbers in a product manager tool that is operatively connected to said relational database tool, so as to allocate manufacturing capacity for said customer deliverable order, automatically preparing a bill-of-materials in said relational database tool to satisfy said customer deliverable order using part numbers from said block of part numbers; and beginning manufacturing of sub-components corresponding to said bill-of-materials before design of said product is completed. It is these three steps, in combination with the remaining elements and features of the invention, that the applicant's invention defines over the prior art of record.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance".

Page 2 (Figure 2) is missing from the drawings. Examiner is not able to determine if this was a fault of the scanning process or if this drawing was left out of the amended drawings as filed. In order to make sure everything is correctly in order, a replacement drawing of Figure 2 in this case is requested. Preliminary drawing 2 has been approved.
